

Lowell Catholic HS

Lowell, Massachusetts

ABOUT THE SCHOOL

videos & pics

Lowell Catholic High School is a co-educational, college preparatory school within the Archdiocese of Boston. The school was founded in 1989 and has a rich past whose roots include other area Catholic schools such as Keith Academy, Keith Hall, St. Joseph, St. Louis and St. Patrick schools. Lowell Catholic's intimate facilities and low student-teacher ratio allow for the students to focus academically, form lasting friendships, develop confidence in self and others and fully benefit from a nurturing environment. Lowell Catholic enrolls approximately 400 students each year.

COMMUNITY PROFILE

Lowell Catholic High School is located 20 miles from downtown Boston. The city of Lowell is a suburban area that offers students safety and a sense of community. Boston is well known as a historical, cultural and recreational city. Boston is well represented by museums, professional sports teams and institutions of higher education.
