Dress Code Requirements

DRESS CODE Our appearance and dress should be characterized by the principles of modesty, appropriateness, neatness, and the avoidance of extremes. The dress code presented here provides a framework to exercise individual taste, preference, and personality within guidelines. If a violation occurs, parents may be contacted to bring appropriate clothing to school.

Girls 1. Girls may wear dresses, dress pants, skirts, capris or jeans. No tight-fitting, revealing, sheer, or low-cut clothing will be permitted. The length of skirts must be at least to the knee when standing. Slits must not rise above the back of the knee. Shirts and blouses must not show midriff when arms are raised. 2. Pants and jeans should always give a neat and modest appearance. They may not be torn or show holes of any kind. They should not be too tight. 3. Only FCA sweatshirts and jackets are permitted. Sweatshirts, hooded sweatshirts and team jerseys are not permitted. 4. No tank tops or T-shirts may be worn as outerwear. Sleeveless blouses must be at least four fingers wide over the shoulder. 5. Shorts, skorts, wind pants, warm-up pants, and sweatpants are not appropriate and will not be permitted as regular classroom dress. 6. No hats, ball caps, or bandannas are permitted inside the building. 7. When prescribed for participation in athletic events or outdoor activities, shorts may be worn provided the length is no shorter than mid-thigh. 8. Hair is to be clean and well maintained. No excessive fads, or radical hair color will be allowed. 9. Extreme makeup styles are not permitted. No visible body piercing, (other than ears), or body markings, such as tattoos, are allowed at school or during school events.. 10. Lightweight jackets may be worn when neatly and appropriately coordinated with the outfit.

Boys 1. Pants and jeans should always give a neat and modest appearance. They may not be torn or show holes of any kind. They should not be too tight or extremely baggy and may not "sag." 2. Athletic shorts; wind pants; warm-up pants; or sweatpants are not permitted. 3. Knee-length dress shorts may be worn to school. Athletic shorts are not permitted. 4. Shirts must have a dress collar (no crew neck collars). When wearing a sweater, a collar is not required. 5. Any sweater with a zipper (from top to bottom) may not be worn, including fleece jackets and track-style jackets. 6. Sweat suits, T-shirts, colored T-shirts, sweatshirts, hooded sweatshirts and team jerseys are not permitted. FCA sweatshirts and jackets may be worn. 7. Hair is to be clean and well groomed. No excessive fads, or radical hair color will be allowed. 8. No earrings during the school day or at school events. 9. No body piercing or body markings, such as tattoos, are to be visible. 10. When prescribed for participation in athletic events or outdoor activities, shorts may be worn provided they are at least mid-thigh in length. 11. Facial hair must be neatly maintained. 12. No hats, ball caps, or bandannas are permitted inside the building.
